A First-class Sensation.

On last Saturday evening great excitement was created in Lawton by a shooting affray in which the participants were two well-known residents of that village, Geo. H. Rix, proprietor of the Robinson House, and Herman Miller, a respectable mechanic.

The episode seems to have been a sort of duel, fought without seconds or any preconceived arrangement, and occurred in the vicinity of Mr. Miller's home. Each claims to have shot the other in self defense and Mr. Rix deposes that he was rambling about in that section of the town in search of a strayed horse, while neither of the actors seems willing to talk of the cause that brought on the engagement, although the affair is not without its accompanying scandal.

The shooting was done with revolvers and Mr. Rix received a bullet in his shoulder which plunged its way into the neck, the physicians not having been able to locate its present whereabouts. Several shots were fired at Mr. Miller, but only one struck him, and that had its force so deadened by intervening thicknesses of clothing that it made but a slight impression, although it was fired in such close proximity as to singe his face with the powder flash.

Mr. Miller was arrested yesterday on complaint of Geo. H. Rix, charged with assault with intent to murder. Respondent has been admitted to bail in the sum of $500, pending his examination, set for May 10th. John Mahard and Harvey Harper signed Miller's bond. The general sentiment seems to be that the most sensational developments will follow.

Elizabeth Van Auker vs. C. & W. M. R. R.; trespass.

Frank Cutler, who last week pleaded guilty to violation of the local option law, has been sent to jail for thirty days, and Elmer Schoolcraft, who was found guilty of the same offense, is in durance vile for twenty days, during which he will have ample time to reflect on the "boot-leg" style of business; while Jerome Pitcher, who pleaded guilty to assault with intent to commit rape, has gone to Jackson for a term of six years.

Business Brevities.

In our strolls around town and in the stores, we find that Sellick has the most slightly line of Capes and Jackets in the village; besides the dress goods they show would do credit to towns much larger than ours.

The Chicago store is still offering Money Saving bargains in a large variety of articles.

The Wolverine Drug Store this week calls attention to its full line of garden seeds.

In a new ad. to-day Avery gives special bargains every hour in the day and every day in the week.

G. A. R.

The State Encampment at Ann Arbor was a large and enthusiastic assemblage and the University city received the many comers with that heartiness of welcome for which she is celebrated.

The election of Department-Commander led to a lively though good-natured contest, and Capt. E. M. Allen of Portland, seemed very much in the lead until it became known that he did not desire his name used. Then Col. Henry S. Dean of Ann Arbor and Col. J. H. Kidd of Ionia came rapidly to the front, the former being elected at the first ballot by 232 votes to 193 for Col. Kidd.

Resolutions were adopted strongly denouncing the Alger attack, the Palmer Memorial Hall project was adopted after much discussion, and Benton Harbor was selected as the next place of encampment.

The influential editor of the Waynesburg (Pennsylvania) Independent, Mr. W. W. Evans, states: I suffered 20 years distressing nervous headache; intense pain; no relief; quit work. I used one-half bottle Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine and was cured; recommend it. (Sample free of our druggist).

THE HAMBLETONIAN STALLION, JOE GAVIN, No. 564.

Is sired by Messenger Duroc, No. 106, one of the best sons of Hambletonian 10. His dam is the great brood mare Fanny Mapes, by Alexander's Abdallah, No. 15. Fanny Mapes is the dam of five with an average of 2.25%, besides being the dam of six producing sons. No other brood mare living or dead can make such a showing.

Who says Joe Gavin does not sire speed? He is sire of Ollie Drake 2:25; Walter Drake 2:27 1/2; Fred Drake 2:27 1/2; and Cora Bell 2:29 1/2. No horse ever stood for service in Van Buren county that is the sire of as many colts in the '30 list at the same age as Joe Gavin.

To those who desire breeding road horses at a profit, they will serve their own interests to look Joe Gavin over individually, scrutinizing his colts carefully, and last, though not least, see if his colts have the characteristics we claim for them, viz: They have solid colors, are upheaded, stylish and gamy; have smooth limbs and good action and a disposition that subjects itself to the control of man. Can any one doubt that a horse 2 to 6 years old with the above qualifications will find a ready sale in any market at a profit to the breeder? Remember, it is past the time when fashionable breeding will sell a horse for a good price, if the individual excellence of that horse is not up to its breeding.

JOE GAVIN will make the season of 1892 at the Willard House barn.

TERMS—$25 to insure, or $15 for the season with usual return privilege, if horse is alive and owned by me.
